

The FCC needs to stop the clearly partisan decision of Sinclair to air Stolen Honor 2 weeks before the election.

The airwaves belong to the public and it is against federal campaign laws to air this program at this time. Moreover, the information in the program is untrue. Journalists should be striving for truth, not trying to get a particular candidate elected.